

EDINBURGH—View from Calton Hill.

Oilette

LL5939

2-18

“EDINBURGH.” Series I.
[Regd.] Postcard 7321.
From “EDINBURGH,” illustrated by J. Fullerton, R.A. (A. & C. Black).

Raphael Tuck & Sons’
“Oilette”

TUCK'S POST CARD.

CARTE POSTALE.

POSTKARTE.

Edinburgh from Calton Hill. A beautiful view of a beautiful city. West from the hill shows the picturesque and irregular mass of the Castle, immediately behind the classic monument to Dugald Stewart which occupies the foreground of the picture. On the left is seen part of the Old Town, with the Imperial Crown of St. Giles, the spire of the Tolbooth Church, and the dome of the Bank of Scotland.

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

